

Judye MacMillan Scholarship Application Form

Each year, the Cherokee Chorale offers a scholarship in the amount of $1,000 to a student graduating from the Cherokee County School District who seeks to further his/her education in Music Performance, Sacred Music, or Music Education at Reinhardt University. The scholarship is offered in memory of Judye MacMillan, one of the founders and long-time conductors of the Cherokee Chorale.

In order to be considered for this scholarship, please complete all sections of this application and return it to the address below, postmarked no later than February 8, 2019. The Director's Evaluation Form should be completed by your high school music teacher and should be sent directly to the address below.

Determination of the scholarship award shall be made no later than March 1, 2019 and shall be communicated to the applicant. The Chorale reserves the right to award no scholarship if it determines there is no appropriate recipient. Any decision of the Chorale is final. Scholarship funds shall be paid directly to Reinhardt University in the name of the student.

Please submit applications by mail to
